

IT'S THE BUSIEST, BRIGHTEST TIME OF THE YEAR

COMMODORE'S REPORT — With Thanksgiving behind us, we enter that busy time of the year that starts with getting the Christmas lights untangled and ends with resolutions for the New Year. If the old Christmas lights can't be saved, buy new LED lights and add 10 times more of them to your boat. Either way, start decorating your boat and join us for one or more of QCYC's scheduled events.

The first is the Seafair Holiday Cruise, Sunday, December 4. Hopefully you have already stepped forward to support this event. Many volunteers are needed that day, but for event sponsor Val Ohlstrom the effort starts long before that. Val has been working for weeks to ensure we have an organized, successful cruise, and all indications are that we are on track to give our special guests an unforgettable experience.

Keep the boat decorated or add even more lights for QCYC's other holiday boating tradition, the Chet Light up your life by joining other Queen City boaters in our holiday traditions, the Chet Gibson lighted boat parade around the lakes, the Seafair Holiday Cruise for special friends in the community and the QCYC Kids' Holiday Party. See inside for details.

Gibson Lighted Boat Parade on the evenings of Friday and Saturday, December 9 and 10. Any lighted boat is welcome to participate and no advance sign-up is required. QCYC hosts this event and provides turn boats, but we also invite members of other yacht clubs to participate. The parade occurs under the capable leadership of event sponsor Chuck Gould, who will likely bend our ear during the parade, sharing its history on our VHF radios.

Over the course of the year, we have a couple of events specifically for children, and once again Shauna Bennett will sponsor the QCYC Children's Holiday Party, Saturday, December 10. If you have young children, they shouldn't miss it, especially the magic show. Santa will arrive by boat which seems to delight everyone, especially Santa. Use your judgement as to whether you tell Santa if you have been naughty or nice this year.

On Thursday, December 15, the Tarettes will sponsor the QCYC Captains Dinner, a popular and festive event. All members are welcome, but sign up quickly as this event always sells out. The club will be decorated for the holidays, the Norwegian Ladies Chorus will perform, and Christmas cheer will flow freely.

As December comes to a close and we put 2016 behind us, we need to spend a moment to reflect on QCYC's Centennial year, which will come to an end December 31. What better way to conclude this historic year than to celebrate at our New Year's Eve party, enjoying cocktails, a steak and salmon dinner, dancing to live music by the Tropics and a champagne toast at midnight.

Another noteworthy event takes effect this month. Effective December 1, we will have an additional outstation at Thetis Island Marina which will operate on a yearly lease basis just like our outstation at Salt Spring Marina. Now everyone has an even better reason to enjoy lazy summer days boating amid the ambience of the Gulf Islands.

Best wishes for a Happy New Year!

—Dave Bedner, Commodore

BOARD OKAYS THETIS OUTSTATION LEASE, WINSLOW PUMP-OUT SERVICE

VICE COMMODORE'S REPORT — I am pleased to announce our new outstation at Thetis Island Marina was approved by the QCYC board of directors, and lease contracts have been signed. The board also approved Terry & Sons to provide pump-out service at the Winslow outstation beginning after the first of the year.

Many thanks to Captain Paul Bennett and the many members who visited Thetis Island this past summer to help facilitate the outstation agreement. Moorage use there is limited to three consecutive nights, with no more than six nights in a 30-day period and a maximum of nine nights per year. To make advance reservations, contact the marina at 250-246-3464.

Timing is perfect for the agreement with Terry & Sons Mobile Marine Pump-out Environmental Services as there will be no public pump-out service during construction of a new dock at the Bainbridge City Park. Terry & Sons will begin weekly service at the outstation after the first of the year.

The Architectural Advisory Committee (AAC) is looking for member input regarding the third-floor remodel at the mainstation. The committee is looking to improve service to the kitchen area, maximize storage, add a third-floor bar and better utilize the conference/apartment room area.

I would like to remind mooring members they need to provide QCYC with an insurance-declaration page naming the club as additional insured. The Insurance Committee will be sending a reminder to each of those members who still need to provide that document to comply with the club's rule.

Electronic billing at QCYC is about to begin. The board of directors proposed January 1 as the date moorage members begin receiving their statements electronically. The new program will save labor and mailing costs associated with previous billings. Member input is encouraged.

All those innovations will enhance membership at Queen City Yacht Club.

With the holiday season upon us, there are many events going at the club we all can enjoy. And I am wishing you all a very happy and blessed holiday season.

'TIS THE SEASON FOR LIGHTED CRUISES AND . . . OREO COOKIES?

REAR COMMODORE'S REPORT — Is it already the holiday season? Where did the time go?

It seems like only yesterday Karleen and I were cruising out of Eagle Harbor pointed toward the Ballard Locks and talking about what a great summer of Winslow big weekends, San Juan adventures and fresh water cruising we had with all of our QCYC friends.

The next thing we knew, it was time for the Queen City Change of Watch and a bunch of rapid-fire Grand 14 Junior Officer Balls. We took a little breather and now it's the season for club parties and family gatherings.

We are looking forward to the Seafair Holiday Cruise, QCYC

Children's Holiday Party, and Captains Christmas Dinner. I am especially excited to be a participant and turn boat in the Chet Gibson Lighted Boat Parade. To be honest, there will be enough wattage on the Miramar to see her half way to the moon.

I tip my cap and raise my cup to all of the Queen City chairs and volunteers who do so much during the holiday season for everyone who benefits from these great events. There is such a sense of pride in our club and its people when we help, support and are involved.

On a business note, we had a very well attended New Members Mainstation Orientation in November. I want to express my appreciation to Mark Vanderwall of the membership committee, Tarettes President Joanie Preusser, Bill Brunkhorst of the web team, and Moorage Chairman Jeff Madera, for their presentations. Also, a big thank you to all the committee chairs who spent the evening with our new members explaining their areas of responsibility. And, of course, a big round of applause to our outstanding membership chairman, Chris Benson.

In conclusion, let's have one more toast . . .

To each and every one of you, along with your families, friends and loved ones, we wish a very safe, healthy and happy holiday season! Cheers.

See you New Year's Eve at the Black and White Ball. I'm dressing as an Oreo cookie.

OUR NEW GULF ISLAND PIT STOP

OUTSTATION REPORT — Late News Flash according to Eric Wood, who signs off this report with "Old What's His Name:"

The club has a new outstation site at Thetis Island Marina.

Our arrangement will be just the same as at Salt Spring Marina: Members contact the marina in advance of their stay to confirm a spot. Instructions will be in the new annual, in Rule 12.

The opportunity arose through the Bennett family, Paul and Shauna. They've stayed there for years and broached the topic with the owner this past summer. Thank them the next time you see them.

If you're not familiar with this great site it's in Telegraph Harbor within walking distance of the ferry to Chemainus and has an on-site restaurant, pub, post office and liquor store. And you can fill up on gas and propane. Check it out at www.thetisland.com. To contact the marina for reservations, phone 250-246-1443 or e-mail marina@thetisland.com.

Barb and Eric Wood

Barb Wood notes that the outstation at Winslow "is always quiet this time of the year."

She writes:

"The fall colors have been beautiful. I just planted some tulip bulbs so we will have some beautiful spring colors too. In the meantime, winter is fast approaching. If the lowland snow predictions come true, Eric may get to use that snowblower stored in the tool shed.

"The winter moorage boats have arrived and are positioned inside the "U." There is plenty of room for visiting boats on the outside of both "A" and "B" docks.

"Happy Boating!"

—Barb (and Eric) Wood,
Outstation Committee chairs

HELP KEEP THAT NEW-BAR SHINE GOING

The second-floor bar in the mainstasion looks like new, thanks to Past Commodore Scott Grimm, who did a stellar refinishing job on the wood.

Andy Gerde, the club manager, urges everyone to help keep that looks-like-new brightwork shiny as long as possible with a couple of "don'ts" and a "do:"

- ★ Don't slide dish racks, bottles or other scratchy things across the bar.
- ★ Don't put hot dishes or equipment that may burn the surface on it.
- ★ Do take your potluck dishes or crockpots to the galley bar or the portable tables rather than resting them on the bar.

And if you see PC Grimm around the club, give him a high-five for his efforts.

HAPPY NEW YEAR, CRUELLA

Ring out the old year and salute the new one in black-and-white style at Queen City.

The New Year's Eve Black and White Ball starts at 7 p.m. Saturday, December 31 at the mainstasion.

Wear anything you want as long as it is black, white or both, says Michele Bedner, hostess of the event. To help you decide on an outfit, she suggests thinking like Cruella Deville, Beetlejuice, a jailbird, the Blues Brothers, a French maid, or, if you're more formally inclined, a tux or evening gown. Anything goes.

There will be prizes for the King and Queen of the Ball, the best-dressed couple in formal wear and the best costume. And every guest will go home with a special Centennial gift to commemorate the end of Queen City Yacht Club's 100-year anniversary.

After light appetizers starting at 7, Chef Willie Williamson will lay out his steak-and-salmon buffet dinner at 8, and there will be dancing to live music by the Tropics from 9 to midnight.

The cost is $55 per person and guests are welcome. To join in, RSVP to Deborah Cobain in the QCYC office, 206-709-2000, by December 28.

EXPERT TO SPEAK ON SALISH SEA PLACE NAMES

Ever wonder where Elliott Bay got its name? Or why we're calling it the Salish Sea? Or Admiralty Inlet -- who does that refer to?

Dick Blumenthal, a maritime historian and author, will share stories of the Salish Sea, its oddly named places and the journeys of its earliest explorers at QCYC's speakers series meeting,

Richard Blumenthal

Wednesday, January 25. Blumenthal has researched the journals of captains George Vancouver, who explored the northwest coast of North America on behalf of Great Britain beginning in 1790, and Charles Wilkes, the U.S naval officer who followed Vancouver's voyage of discovery with a survey of Puget Sound in 1841.

Vancouver's journey didn't help resolve a diplomatic dispute between the British and the Spanish over the rights to the territory we know as the Salish Sea as he was instructed to do, according to the Center for the Study of the Pacific Northwest. But he did map the coastline from Baja California to Alaska's Cook Inlet between 1792 and 1794. And Wilkes named or re-named dozens of landmarks in Puget Sound, including Elliott Bay.

Blumenthal undertook his research into the journals to better understand the hardships of Vancouver and Wilkes and the character of the places they visited. He has written several books on northwest maritime history, including "Maritime Place Names, Inland Washington Waters."

The speaker series at QCYC is being arranged by the Presentations Committee. Dinner will start at 6 p.m. to accommodate the large turnout that's expected.

AN OLD-TIME WELCOME FOR NEWBIES

The initiation fee was $1. And most of the members wanted to come up with a name that included "motor boat club."

But that was then, in 1916 when Queen City was founded. And this is now, as a slate of new members found out when Trustee Mark Vanderwall led them through the years of QCYC history at an orientation for new members Nov. 15.

Vanderwall's slide-show presentation covered 100 years of history, ending with today, when membership hovers around 550 active and social members and there's a waiting list for one of the 241 permanent slips at the mainstation.

The evening began with a burger-bar buffet by Chef Willie Williamson for the new members, chairs of several committees and officers.

New members who signed up to attend include Eric Long, Jim Sanders, Steve Clark, Kate and Greg Wharton, Greg Satoro, Kirk Knapp, Wendy and Steve Rittereiser, Dave and Annie Eckols-Spalding, Nancy and Mark Wehrmeister, Wanda and Rico

Fussel, Trela Herman, Denise Lindholm, Christine and Brian Presser and Pat Dye.

Vanderwall introduced Rear Commodore Mark Reed, who planned the event; Commodore and First Lady Dave and Michele Bedner; Chris Benson, membership chair; Barry Rutten, trustee and annual committee member; Colleen Rutten, annual chair; Jim Damery, house committee co-chair; Pete Collins, measuring committee chair; Dennis and Niki Rampe, fleet captains and ship's store chairs; Karleen Reed, grounds committee chair, and Sally Macdonald, Bilge Pump co-editor.

Tarettes President Joanie Preusser; Bill Brunkhorst, web master, and Jeff Madera, moorage chairman, explained their bailiwicks.

SIGN-UPS TO CLOSE SOON FOR THE CAPTAINS DINNER

We won't have a Tarettes meeting in December, but we hope to see everyone at the Captains Christmas Dinner on Thursday, December 15.

I think the Captains Dinner is one of the best events of the year. But hurry -- sign-ups close on December 7. At the dinner, we will be collecting gifts and gift cards from Target, Safeway or Fred Meyer for the Boyer Children's Clinic. Mary Jo Svendsen (maryjosv@me.com) and Becky Garvie (canstyle@aol.com) are co-chairs for the event. Reservations and checks for $25 per person should be sent to Ann Wilbour, 128 West Lake Sammamish Pkwy. N.E., Bellevue, WA 98008.

At our October general meeting, we had a great presentation by Becky Garvie on tips to winterize your boat.

Our first Tarettes meeting in the new year will be Wednesday, January 18, beginning with a board meeting at 5 p.m. (open to all) followed by a social at 6:30 and the general membership meeting at 7:30 on the third floor. Please bring an appetizer and/or wine to share at the social.

We are invited to Seattle Yacht Club for Women in Boating classes. The first class was October 25; and "Knot a Problem," the second class, was November 6. It is really nice to meet the SYC women. We bring an hors d'oeuvre and wine to share at 6 p.m. and the program is at 6:30. Future classes will be announced in Tarettes Blasts e-mails and at the Tarettes general meeting.

If you'd like to be more involved, we are looking for chairs for the archive, philanthropy, roster, scrapbook, dock sale and Friday Night Social committees; and we need a photographer. It would be really great to have some new Tarettes step up. Please let me or any of the officers know if you are interested in one of these chairs.

—Joanie Preusser, president

WELCOME NEW TARETTES

Two prominent captains have recently joined Tarettes. Welcome to Sue Lindal and Karleen Reed.

Sue and her husband, Bob, own the 54-foot Navigator, Suzy Q. Sue is a regular member of the QCYC predicted log racing team.

Karleen and husband, Rear Commodore Mark Reed, own Miramar, a 50-foot Grand Banks. We look forward to both women participating in the Tarettes activities and fellowship.

Pirates, fairies, zombies and the odd sea-going creature or two mixed it up at QCYC's annual Halloween bash. Terron and Denise Lindholme were a shark- and jelly fish-out-of-water; Commodore Dave and First Lady Michele Bedner ditched Wonderland for the mainstation; Andy Gerde came in from the apocalypse as a nasty-looking zombie, and a crew of pirates and fairies fraternized in fine fashion.

GIRLS night out

Calling ALL Ladies, we're doing it again...

Thursday, January 12, 2017!

Enjoy a gourmet dinner and a spectacular variety show
(just for us gals)! And chauffeured by our fellas!

Here's how it works:

Meet at QCYC 2nd floor at 4:15PM. Enjoy champagne and snacks during your ticket and car assignments. Our fine male chauffeurs will then deliver us to THEATRE ZINZANNI for an evening of glittering theatrical wonderment, all the while enjoying a decadent five-course dinner! Seated on the main floor, we will be surrounded by three hours of riotous comedy, aerial and acrobatic acts; a dizzying alternate reality entitled, "Welcome to Wonderland". In conclusion, about 10-10:30 PM, our chauffeurs will magically reappear and safely whisk us away to QCYC again. We always have a grand time!

Cost is $112 per person. Beverages and gratuities will be separate. Special diet considerations are to be made at time of reservation. Please submit your check/reservation to Kathleen Lentgis at 1716 30th Avenue West, Seattle, WA 98199. Questions? Contact me at 206-285-7272 or kathleenl@comcast.net. I hope you can join us! It's a great way to make new friends and celebrate each other. Don't miss it!

ROBERT (BOB) MORRICE

1920 – 2016

Friends at Queen City Yacht Club remember Captain Bob Morrice as an avid boater and fisherman, an active and well-regarded contributor to the club from the 1980s to the early 2000s.

And they remember Betty, his wife for 70 years until her death, for working hard on Tarettes' projects and events.

Bob crossed the bar October 13 at the age of 96.

Bob was born in February, 1920 in Seattle and grew up in the Greenwood neighborhood. He graduated from Queen Anne High School, where he met Betty.

His paternal grandparents had emigrated from Aberdeen, Scotland in 1889 and homesteaded on a farm in the location of the current Alderwood Mall.

Betty, who was raised by her uncle in Tacoma after her parents' deaths, worked as a switchboard operator for Associated Grocers for several years before settling in to raise their three children. She was known as an excellent seamstress, and had a talent for cooking and knitting. She and Bob were married in 1942.

Bob went to work for Boeing in 1941 as a draftsman in the tool-design department. He remained with Boeing for 41 years, including 38 years in management. He worked on military and commercial airplanes, from the B-17 to the 747. His assignments included tool- and production-planning, manufacturing management and production-control management.

Bob was active in the Seattle Sail and Power Squadron (SSAPS) as well as in QCYC. He served as secretary and treasurer of SSAPS.

The Morrices often cruised to Garrison Bay where Bob's brother had a place just inside the entrance. Bob, his brother and his young son, Rob, would go fishing off the south end of Henry Island by Kellet Bluff and Open Bay. Betty often canned the salmon her men caught. Later in life, the couple enjoyed cruising to Center Island to visit Rob and daughter who as adults both have a place there.

Bob joined Queen City in 1985 after retiring from Boeing. The first official record of his membership activities was in 1989, when he was the club's fishing derby chair, indicating he had caught the biggest fish in 1988.

He was the Winslow outstation chair in the winter of 1990 and began to serve on the board of trustees at that time. He was board chairman in 1992. He served on the docks committee off and on for seven years, often as chair. In 1999 he was fleet measurer while also serving on the legislative and docks committees from 1997 to 2004.

Bob was also a primary "doer" when the club remodeled the Winslow galley the first time. And, while on the docks committee, he always seemed to be in charge of pulling up the milfoil in the marina fairways (no herbicides in those days). Even if it meant doing the job all by himself.

When they joined the club, Bob and Betty owned a 32-foot sailboat, the Andrea, but in 1997 they purchased their first power boat from Dean Lentgis, a 38-foot Rawson they renamed Rapport. Since the Rapport had been a log racing champion, Bob and Rob, also a member of QCYC at the time, decided to try their hand at log racing. They won the 1997 Eagle Harbor contest.

The Morrices are remembered fondly around the club. Carol Soffel recalls cruising to Desolation Sound with the couple one summer. They were caught in a storm from Grief Point all the way to Smuggler's Cove, where they finally felt it was safe to cross from the west side of Texada. She remembers Bob's face looking completely ashen, probably matching everyone else's.

Bob and Betty enjoyed spending time at Winslow in the summers and were close cruising friends with Bob and Joyce Brown.

Captain Morrice is survived by his daughters, Janet and Susan, and his son Rob.

Calling all QCYC Captains!

Please join us in spreading Holiday Cheer by volunteering for the Seafair Holiday Cruise

Sunday, December 4, 2016;

Volunteer Orientation Meeting at 12:30; Volunteer Dinner approximately 5:30.

For this fun-filled event individual skippers volunteer their boats to take adults with developmental disabilities and their chaperones for a boat ride. Our guests receive a special treat bag, a chat and photo with Santa, and a visit with the Seafair clowns.

WE NEED MANY VOLUNTEERS FOR A SUCCESSFUL EVENT, including:

- Skippers: The skipper decides how many passengers s/he can accommodate and picks them up either at their slip at the main station or in the "U."
- Dock Elves: Dock elves greet our guests when they arrive, give them their life jacket and snack bag, deliver them to their boat, and assist them when they return.
- Santas: Santa receives calls at the main station on his cell phone from our guests during their boat ride and hears their wish list!
- Kitchen Help: We provide a simple meal for all volunteers after the event, and need kitchen and clean-up help in the grand style of all QCYC events!

Please sign up online or on the sign-up sheet outside the office. Or you may also contact one of the captains below directly:
